

The WebinaRR: Existing and New Farm Support Schemes
A Three-Part “Lunch & Learn” CPD Series
3rd, 10th and 17th March 2021

With DEFRA’s publication of the Agricultural Transition Plan for 2021-2024, further details of new English Farm Support Schemes due to come out from early 2021 and existing Schemes opening for applications by March 2021, there’s a vast amount of information to digest by spring 2021.

To support professional advisers in the rural/ agricultural sector, Alice De Soer, BSc(Hons) MRICS FAAV, founder of Rural Response, will be running a three-part “Lunch & Learn” WebinaRR series in March 2021 to cover the “what’s what” of existing and new Farm Support Schemes in England.

What will be covered? With over 17 years of practical experience of design and implementation of these Schemes, Alice will cover:-

- An overview of what the Agricultural Transition Plan 2021-2024 means for Farm Support Schemes
- Countryside Stewardship – including changes for 2021 applications
- Environmental Land Management – including the Sustainable Farming Incentive (SFI)
- Basic Payment Scheme – including 2021 applications, phasing out and “delinking”
- Other Agricultural Transition Plan 2021-2024 schemes and funding

When? The three-part WebinaRR series will take place on three consecutive Wednesday lunchtimes on 3rd, 10th and 17th March 2021. Each 90 minute session will run from 12.30-2.00 p.m. (total of 4.5 hours CPD) with plenty of opportunity to pose questions. You bring the virtual lunch and Alice will provide the learning.

Cost/ Booking? This three-part WebinaRR series is being offered at a reduced rate for IAgRM members - £60.00 + VAT (total of 4.5 hours CPD). To book, please go to Eventbrite.

For the latest updates on emerging information around the next 7 years of farming, please do sign up to the BlogRR.

Any questions, please contact Alice De Soer – alice@alicedesoer.co.uk or 07811 147092.

